New York, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Society here and in Newport is feverishly discussing the latest choice morsel of gossip. Dame Rumor is hinting that Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt has really bestowed her heart upon one of the members of the vast throng of admirers that has been following in her wake since she divorced Alfred G. She adds that he is a good looking man of about 30, a Harvard graduate, who has been paying frequent week-end visits to Harborview, Mrs. Vanderbilt's home at Newport. It appears he is Richard de Boardman, son of Edwin Boardman, of Beverly Farms, who is a member of the aristocratic family of de Blois. Not so long ago, Mrs. Vanderbilt's name was connected with that of count Bereham, a dashing young German diplomat and courtier, who was as assidious in his attentions. For some unexplained reason there came an estrangement between the two just at the period when society was expecting the announcement of their engagement to marry.
